

Grounds Usage Policy

The Southold Library is situated on 2 parcels of property which includes staff and public parking, a small courtyard with benches and a picnic table, the Friends of the Library Book Cottage, a 'pocket park' with picnic tables and a "Little Free Library", and green space adjacent to the driveway. Patrons are welcome and invited to use and enjoy the outside property as part of the Library experience.

- Wifi is available 24/7, accessible around the building's exterior. No password is needed.
- There are no public trash receptacles on the property—any trash must be carried out.
- Dumpsters are for Library use only.
- For the safety of all patrons, overnight parking on Library property is prohibited. Violators may be subject to police enforcement and towed at their own expense.
